EXHIBITION PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

At Center for the Arts Eagle Rock, our Exhibitions program provides opportunities for the diverse voices of local artistic innovators. Group exhibitions in all media, that promote immersive, participatory experiences, are carefully reviewed in accordance with our mission. Center for the Arts, Eagle Rock's mission is to be innovative in providing multidisciplinary, arts-inclusive programming to the diverse communities of northeast Los Angeles.

We produce at least 6 contemporary exhibitions every year, giving over 100 local, emerging, and established artists the opportunity to curate and consider new ways of collaborating within their artistic environment.

Criteria

- Our gallery is part of a historic space, and therefore proposals that alter the structural integrity of the space/gallery itself are not possible.
- We prefer proposals for curated group exhibitions, rather than solo exhibitions.
- We encourage workshops, film screenings, and readings, to further engage the community and deepen connections to the work being exhibited.
- There must be a strong conceptual element within your proposal, which ties to our mission.
- We prefer to exhibit artists who are connected to our city, and curators who reside in Los Angeles.
